

Information for Prom drop off and After-Prom

If your guest is a non-NDCL student, please forward this text/doc to them.
Your non-NDCL guest must show an ID at guest check-in.

1. Limit yourself to one duffel bag and a garment bag with a hanger for your tuxedo or dress. Make sure your garment bag is labeled with your name.
2. When packing for After Prom, be prepared for cool temperatures, the forecast for the evening will be in the 50s. When the sun sets, it will be chilly. Fun 'N' Stuff is indoor and outdoor, and they keep the doors open so there is usually a strong breeze blowing through the building too.
 - Bring long pants and a sweater or sweatshirt.
 - If you want to roller skate, bring a pair of socks.
3. When you arrive at Windows on the River, check in to pick up your luggage tags and bus assignments NDCL students, go to the NDCL table.
4. NON NDCL STUDENTS: Please check in at the Guest table and show your ID at the check in
 - The chaperones will send you to drop off your bag in a designated area and then find a seat for dinner.
 - Seating is first come, first serve. Tables are set to 8 chairs per table. If your group arrives later, it is possible that you will have to split up and sit at different tables during dinner.
 - For health and safety reasons, you may NOT walk around Windows on the River in bare feet.
 - Ladies, remember to get your flip flops/flats out before you leave your bag with the chaperones – you will not have access to your bags until the end of prom.
5. At the end of Prom, you will get your bags and change at Windows on the River before heading to Fun 'N' Stuff and change in the designated changing area.
6. When you arrive at Fun 'N' Stuff, your bags will stay on the bus.
7. What to expect at Fun 'N' Stuff:
 - a. You have access to all the rides, but any games with tickets or prizes are not included.
 - b. There will also be food there (Pizza, boneless chicken wings, salad, pasta, cookies and fountain drinks)

YOU WILL NOT HAVE ACCESS TO YOUR BAGS ONCE YOU ENTER FUN 'N' STUFF.

Remember to bring a purse or a small bag in with you to Fun 'N' Stuff for your extra clothes, phone, camera or any other necessities.

*Please remember, Windows on the River and Fun 'n' Stuff are public venues.

Neither of these locations, nor NDCL, are responsible for the loss of your personal belongings.

Looking forward to seeing you at the Prom on Friday!
